

Tamarind Village received “Trusted Thailand” Stamp

November 2025 – Chiang Mai, Thailand – Tamarind Village has achieved “Trusted Thailand” Stamp from The Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) – The certification program recognizing the tourism business who meet the highest safety standards.

The Trusted Thailand

The initiative aims to strengthen international confidence and enhance Thailand’s position as a trusted for safety and quality, sending a clear message that the kingdom is ready to welcome Chinese tourists and international visitors from around the world.

Under this initiative, the assessment covers four key areas: general safety measures at tourism sites - such as CCTV installation; secure financial transactions with recognized global platforms; foreign language communication and professional visitor care; and safe access and mobility.

About Tamarind Village

Tamarind Village Chiang Mai is a unique and charming Lanna-style boutique property that nestles in the heart of historic Chiang Mai making it the ideal base for exploring the city’s ancient temples and quaint shopping streets. The hotel’s 41 guest rooms and 5 suites, set around a series of courtyards, reflect the rich ethnic diversity of northern Thailand by using fabrics and patterns drawn from the region’s various hill tribes. An oasis of calm and tranquility, the hotel takes its name from a 200-year-old Tamarind tree that shelters it in a shady embrace.
